

GIRL ROBBED OF $1,200 IN GEMS SHIELDS THIEF

Terribly Beaten, She Suffers Relapse When She Hears of Loss.

The mystery surrounding the identity of the man who robbed and then beat May Fowler so brutally that she lay semi-conscious for two days, was partly cleared today by her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Cooke, of No. 108 Clinton street, Brooklyn, who said the victim knew but would not reveal the name of her assailant.

The assault took place in the Minerva Hotel, one hundred and Twenty-fourth street and Eighth avenue, Saturday night, but the young woman was so terribly injured she could not tell a coherent story until yesterday. When the police went to the Hotel Wright Hospital she made the discovery that $120 worth of jewels had been taken from her and she was thrown into a stupor. Most of the jewels consisted of rings, which were literally torn from her fingers, after which the man picked up a bottle and pounded her until her face was almost beyond recognition.

FOURTH YACHT VICTIM DEAD.

Chief Engineer of the Columbia Expired To-Day.

John Leonard, chief engineer of the Columbia, whose boiler blew up in Oyster Bay Cove, near Sagamore Hill Sunday, died in the Nassau Hospital, Mineola, to-day. He was the fourth victim of the accident.

The Columbia, owned by the property of Frederick G. Bourne, former commodore of the New York Yacht Club.

MAYOR WITNESS AT INSPECTOR'S TRIAL

Counsel for Schmittberger Declares He Will Prove High Up Conspiracy.

Veteran Actor-Manager Had Been on Stage Forty-eight Years, Since His Youth.

Frank Mordaunt, the actor-manager, is dead, after years of suffering from a nervous disorder. The end came to him at a sanitarium at Bedford City, Va.

Arthur T. Markham was his real name. He was born in New England and was sixty-four years old. He went on the stage when he was eighteen. His last appearance was at "Fourteenth Street Theatre," in "New England Folks," in 1903.

The cause of his breakdown was said to be the failure of the Mordaunt Stock Company, which he formed in 1901 and disbanded in 1903, a few days at the Herald Square Theatre, to break him.

At the hearing he placed Sergeant McNaught on the rack in regard to the arrest of McNaught sixteen years ago, before he went on the force. Deputy Commissioner Mattox, who was prosecuting, said he was well aware of the machinations of the defense to get the man off.

Mr. Littleton insisted that the charges in the case were the result of a conspiracy. He was asked by the commission to name the conspirators and said he thought Deputy Commissioner Mattox was the man most malignantly active in endeavoring to break the inspector.

After the hearing Mr. Littleton said he did not intend to name the conspirators until he had the case ready.

He said he would show the conspiracy and that it was probable that Major McClellan would be called as a witness.

At the hearing he placed Sergeant McNaught on the rack in regard to the arrest of McNaught sixteen years ago, before he went on the force. Deputy Commissioner Mattox, who was

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have sleep, or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS TOO MUCH will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Drugists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labeling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poison doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.
